Workshop on pensions and ageing

COLLOQUE
RETRAITE ET VIEILLISSEMENT
édition 2025

OCT 9th - 10th
OCT

15, quai Anatole France
75007 Paris

organized by the Social Policy Division of the Caisse des Dépôts and the Social Economy, Protection and Society Chair of University of Paris 1 Pantheon-Sorbonne

The conference is open to contributions related to economics, sociology, political science, demography, spatial economics and statistics on pensions and ageing, covering the following themes:

- economic and demographic cycles, public transfers and private transfers linked to the ageing of the population,
- demographic aspects of retirement (life expectancy, differential mortality, conjugal behavior...),
- labour market, end-of-career and retirement (career paths, ageing workforce, health at work, arduous jobs, employment of older workers, working in retirement, employer behavior and early retirements...),
- retirement behavior,
- specificities according to professional status (employees, civil servants, self-employed workers...),
- macroeconomic modelling and financing of retirement systems,
- microsimulation modelling of pensions and ageing,
- reform evaluations,
- savings behavior, wealth accumulation and preferences,
- financial management of pension schemes (funded schemes, reserves),
- inequalities in retirement and ageing (inter and intra-generational inequalities, gender issues...),
- living conditions of retirees, residential mobility, housing conditions, ageing and health, entry into nursing homes, isolation, ageing and territories,
- social participation, sharing of domestic work within households,
- financing and provision of long-term care.

The journals "Revue de l'OFCE" and "Revue d'économie politique" may publish, in two special issues, some contributions presented at the Workshop on Retirement and Aging, after a refereeing process organized by each journal.

Contributions will be selected by submitting a complete paper.

Contributions should be sent to the following address: workshop2025@caissedesdepots.fr no later than April 6th, 2025.

Contributions may be either in English or French.

The selection committee will notify its choices during June, 2025.
